NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS

Before 1984 ends, we would like to express our sincere thanks to all who helped to build up our Parish Community during the year. A special word of thanks to the Sacristan, the Junior, Youth and Senior Choirs, the Ministers of the Word and of the Eucharist, the Collectors, the Altar Boys, the Altar Society and the Area Collectors.

We hope and pray that the New Year will bring you all peace and happiness.

Holy family +

Parents who worry about their children; children who bristle with hope for their own future: these are common scenes. The Holy Family at Nazareth was no exception, and is a model for us today in the love and respect the members of that family showed each other.
