Test Your Skill

AS PROMISED last Sunday, you will find a selection of puzzles inside your Bulletin this Sunday. And some dazzling prizes, as high as £5!

If you'd like to compete, be sure to drop your entry in to 1 Woodlawn, Model Farm Road, as soon as possible. Names of winners, if any, as well as solutions, will be given in next Sunday's Bulletin.

WARNING: If you haven't got a Bible, you haven't got a hope in either competition! And, yes, Bibles are sold in C.P. Centre.

New Sign

VISITORS TO the Christian Pursuit Centre will notice the lovely new sign over the door. A suitable addition, we're sure you'll agree.

1987 Approaches

THE NEW YEAR begins on Thursday next. And January 1st is the Solemn Feast of Mary, Mother of God. As well as being a day of special devotion to Our Lady, it's the Church's day of prayer for peace. So let's all begin 1987 on a prayerful note.

Friday is the First Friday of January. Calls to the sick will be made as usual. Masses on both the 1st and the 2nd will be on the usual weekday times i.e. 9.00, 10.00 and 7.30 P.M.

From Your Pastoral Team -

A NEW YEAR MESSAGE OF THANKS

Our Altar Society members laboured faithfully in keeping God's house and altar very beautiful. The flower arrangements all year were superb.

Our choirs - Folk, Senior and Junior - kept on lifting our hearts and voices to the Lord. Our organists and guitarists enriched our Parish worship. And we thank our cantors, for helping us all together to praise the Lord!

Our Ministers of the Word and of the Eucharist, with our Altar Boys, were devout and prayerful. We are grateful for their fidelity to the Lord.

We thank our collectors, those who contribute and our excellent Sacristan. Thanks too to those who run off the Bulletin, and to all those who distribute it. The priests thank their area Dues collectors for their help.

Finally, we thank all our parishioners for their support and encouragement. Please continue to pray for us, as we will for you.

Your Priests and Sisters wish you all.....
