GENEROUS DONOR

We are most grateful to an anonymous donor who responded so magnificently to last week's request for a prize for the Crossword, in fact we received three, two Waterford cut-glass Vases, a Royal Doulton China Dish and an Irish Leather Wallet. These were a splendid addition to the two £5 prizes already promised.

CELEBRATION

ON THURSDAY NIGHT at 8.00 PM. tension was high in the C.P.C. as Canon O'Connor drew the prize winning entries from the sixteen successful solutions. Fr. Cotter and the sacristan, Mr. Pat Organ, acted as scrutineers. This was the most lavish event in the history of the Bulletin's Crossword Competition. As the drums rolled and the fanfare was blown the names of the following lucky contestants were drawn:

- 1st. Prize - Cut Glass - Donnacha Kerins, 72 Wilton Gardens.
- 2nd Prize - Royal Doulton Dish - K. Murphy, 71 Wilton Gardens.
- 3rd Prize - Leather Wallet - Anne O'Callaghan, Farranlea Grove.
- 4th Prize - £5 Note - Sr. Ailbe, St. Catherine's Convent.
- 5th Prize - £5 Note - Celine Glacken, St. Catherine's Convent.

Unique Ceremony

During 7:30 AM Mass in the Poor Clare's Monastery on Pentecost Sunday, 4 Ministers were commissioned to help at Holy Communion. One was Mrs. Eileen McCarthy, who will help in the Chapel. What made the Ceremony unique was the fact that three of the Sisters were also commissioned to bring Holy Communion to sick members of the Community. Our congratulations to the Mother Abbess, Sister Clare and Sister Joseph on their Ministry.

Rest In Peace

THE GENTLE rain fell last Friday as Sister Patrick was buried in the Poor Clare Cemetery. The Funeral Mass was celebrated by Rev. C. Byrne, OFM, who recalled the day in 1926 when the young girl left Aghadoe in Killarney for good, to enter the Community. Bishop Buckley led the graveside prayers. May she Rest In Peace.
