THE HOLY SPIRIT is the patron of our Parish Church here in Ballincaspaig. Why not pray to him while you are with us!

HOLY SPIRIT, come like a mighty rushing wind and awaken us out of our complacency, our apathy, our indifference.

Disturb us, for we are too content to let things go on as they are and to let people go on not knowing you.

Penetrate the closed gates of our hearts and make us live again.

O Holy Spirit, create among us a mighty Christian revolution and cast the fear of the unknown out of our lives.

BALLINEASPAIG PARISH BULLETIN

AS YOU are a guest with us here in Ballineaspaig, why not learn a little about our area?

Fifty years ago, our area was no more than country lanes and green fields. Gradually it became one of the western suburbs of Cork City. The total area became the Parish of Bishopstown in 1970. But growth continued, so now there are three parishes in the area - Wilton, Curraheen, and our own parish of Ballineaspaig.

Where did our parish get its name? It derives from one of the ancient townlands that make up our parish, originally called Ballineaspaigmore. That derives from the Irish (Gaelic) name 'Baile an Easpaig mór', meaning the large place or area owned by the bishop.

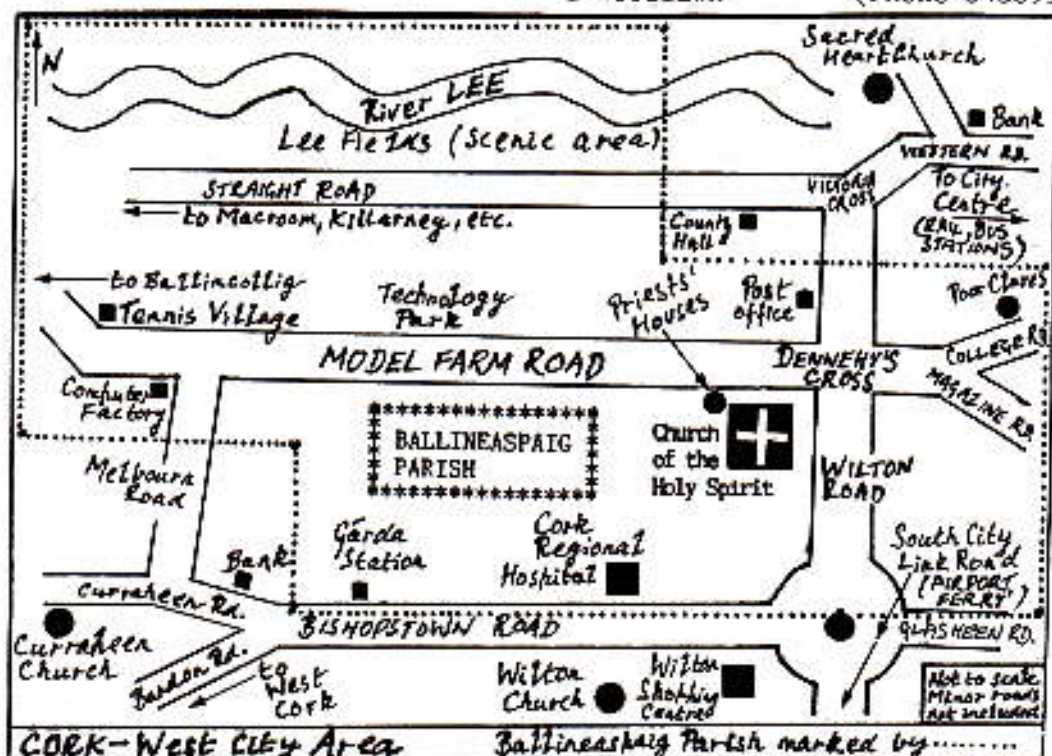

OUR PARISH CHURCH, at Dennehy's Cross, which was opened in 1960, is dedicated to the Holy Spirit. As you wander around the Church, look up at the mosaic over the altar, which portrays the coming of the Spirit on Pentecost Day. Pray to the Holy Spirit to come to you, too.

Before leaving, spend a moment looking at the beautiful rose window, which is an image of the love of God for you and for all.

IF YOU have any questions about our Church, or our faith, simply get in touch with one of the priests of the parish:
