OUR PARISH PRIEST WRITES

“SUMMERTIME”

At the moment the Leaving and Junior Cert. Examinations are continuing, primary school teachers and pupils are counting the days. Summertime is here. Many are planning holidays, switching off, taking a well-earned break. Groups and organisations have finished meetings begun last September. In sport, the annual summer competitions, including the All Ireland Hurling and Football competitions have commenced.

For others life continues with sickness, bereavement, problems, difficult decisions to be made, with no end in sight. Only God knows at times the struggles and pressures of many. May we always be sensitive and remember we need each other, no one can face life on their own.

In our parish, looking back since last August, we celebrated the Golden Jubilee of our Church dedicated to the Descent of the Holy Spirit (last Sunday's Feast of Pentecost). Many other events took place. Thanks to all involved who use their God given gifts and talents in so many ways. Priests cannot do all the work on our own and it is only through the dedication and commitment and goodwill of so many in our parish and all parishes that so much has been achieved.

Changes have taken place in our community. Many, like myself, are settling in. I hope you are happy here and have made new friends. Others sadly have emigrated for various reasons. May they get a good welcome in their new countries. God also has called some of our parishioners home to heaven. May they rest in peace and be rewarded for their kindness and goodness.

The daily commitment continues for many and they are appreciated very much. Facing the summer months, may the Lord be with us all in our situations and protect all going on holidays. Again, thanks to all for the on-going goodwill. May God bless us all.
