"WHAT HAS BEEN IS WHAT WILL BE ... AND THERE IS NOTHING NEW UNDER THE SUN"
(Ecclesiastes 1:9)

*Today my soul is reaching out
For something that's unknown,
I cannot grasp or fathom it
For it's known to God alone -
I cannot hold or harness it
Or put it into form,
For it's as uncontrollable
As the wind before the storm -
I know not where it came from
Or whither it will go,
For it's inexplicable
As the restless winds that blow -
And like the wind it too will pass
And leave nothing more behind
Than the memory of a mystery
That blew across my mind -
But like the wind it will return
To keep reminding me
That everything that has been
Is what again will be -
For there is nothing that is new
Beneath God's timeless sun,
And present, past and future
Are all moulded into one -
And east and west and north and south
The same wind keeps on blowing,
While rivers run endlessly
Yet the sea's not overflowing -
And the restless unknown longing
Of my searching soul won't cease
Until God comes in glory
And my soul at last finds peace.*

(H. Steiner Rice)

NOTICE BOARD

Catholicism: A short Introduction

Do you know anyone who would like to know more about Catholic beliefs and way of life? Perhaps you know someone who is engaged or married to a Catholic, recently moved to Ireland or surrounded by Catholics at home or work, or perhaps have questions they never had a chance to ask. These evenings are for anyone who would like a better understanding of Catholic belief and practice - why we do what we do. These sessions will give a simple and informal introduction with plenty of time for questions and discussion. There will be no expectation that participants have any interest in becoming Catholic. All welcome. Led by Fr. Cormac Breathnach S.M.A., Fr. Declan Mansfield and Anne Francis. The evenings will be held in the Wilton Parish Centre on 4 Mondays -
Nov. 12th - Catholic Believing
